

Use your voice & support our Ofsted inspection

As you will be aware, Ofsted is inspecting our provision from Monday 27 November - Thursday 30 November.

Ahead of the inspection Ofsted are keen to hear your views as a student and are asking you to complete their short learner survey online here: <https://ofsted.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/LearnerView/10270990>

It is important that as many students complete the survey as possible, as these findings support Ofsted during the inspection, and ensure student voice is part of this process.

Please complete it by copying and pasting the link above. It is a very short survey, and all responses are anonymous.

Thank you for supporting our upcoming inspection!

IT disruption: prepare for your study periods

Please remember that tomorrow (Thursday 23 November) there will be significant disruption to IT provision, and no access to College wi-fi.

Whilst your teachers are planning lessons that can be delivered without affected systems, we are encouraging students to plan work that can be completed during independent study sessions.

With the trial exam period just around the corner, you could bring in some revision or even download a couple of past papers from the relevant exam board websites tonight to complete tomorrow.

What does your religious or non religious belief mean to you?

This week is Inter Faith Week. Thank you to everyone who joined us in the Junction. Remember that you can still submit a creative piece which may be a presentation, reflection or even a poem that tells the world more about what your beliefs mean to you.

Inter Faith Week

Some of the questions you could answer as part of this include:

- What do your beliefs mean to you personally?
- What do you wish the wider world knew about your beliefs or what misconception would you tackle?
- You could also pick one of the core values from your beliefs and tell us how this could help create a better world
- How do your personal beliefs align with our values as a College? Where are the similarities?

Send your entries to news@huddnewcoll.ac.uk

Do you know someone in Year 11?

Next week is our final Open Event for current Year 11 students who are considering their next steps after GCSEs.

The event runs on Thursday 30 November from 5.30 - 8.30pm, with last entry at 8pm. The evening is a chance to explore the courses on offer at HNC, meet staff and have a chat to Student Ambassadors about the HNC experience.

There will be no further general Open Events after this, so if you know someone in Year 11 please do tell them about the event!

Don't forget that College is closed on Friday 1 December and no lessons with take place either face to face or online
